

University Puerto Rico
Rio Piedras Campus
College of Social Sciences
Rehabilitation Counseling Graduate School

Tenure Track Position

Expanding starting date August 1, 2021

Requirements:

- Doctoral degree or PhD in rehabilitation counseling or in a related field from an accredited university. If the candidate does not have a doctoral degree in rehabilitation counseling, must have a master's degree in rehabilitation counseling from an accredited university.
- Must have the Rehabilitation Counselor Certification (RCC)
- Proven professional and academic experience in the rehabilitation counseling field
- Capacity for effective face-to-face and distance education at the post secondary level
- Capacity for research and creative work
- Publications in the rehabilitation counseling field or related fields
- Community service experience
- Experience in evaluation of proposals and commitment to seeking external funds
- Competencies in one or more of the following specialty areas:
 - Psychiatric rehabilitation
 - Crisis intervention
 - Trauma management
 - Group and family counseling
 - Interventions with persons with a history of substance abuse
 - Consultation
 - Advocacy
 - Leadership