

Information and Instruction

The School of Communication of the University of Houston has the honor to announce the award for students for their best writing portfolio in the area of information and communication studies in August 1, 2018.

Eligibility: Students may have either a bachelor's or master's degree in any field outside of a formal communication program from an accredited university or international research agency in information, journalism and public relations or in communication. Students in training and in several levels with a bachelor's degree, master's or other writing, research, or special interests for years of writing experience at the university level, including in their master's program, are also encouraged to send the electronic version of their research that has achieved some national, state and other awards. Professional portfolios are preferred.

Responsibility: Teachers in formal degree programs are encouraged to encourage and provide their best writing, research and other materials. The area of information and journalism, communication and communication studies are also encouraged to provide a great research portfolio to the area of special interests. The best research program, including in the school and the best degree, will be provided for the award and delivery of research, along with all the responsibilities involved in maintaining the area of the University of Houston.

Deadline for award ceremony: Students must submit a letter by April 15, 2018 for the award ceremony. The letter should include the student's name and address, their research and portfolio, research areas, awards, training and portfolio. It includes a list of research, publications in peer-reviewed journals, and other work. It should include a list of all degrees, a special certificate, and a list of other work from the communication field.

Copyright © 2018 by the University of Houston

University of Houston

School of Communication

University of Houston

University of Houston

21 Avenue of the Americas

Houston, TX 77002-1100

Phone: 713/646-1100

E-mail address: info@uh.edu

