

College of Arts and Sciences
Department of English Language
Master of Arts in English Language

Statement for a Study Transcript in Other Degrees

The Department of English Language College of Arts and Sciences, at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, certifies a credit of 18 semester hours granted for the following, beginning August 1, 2014.

Applicant: The applicant has been a full-time undergraduate student at Illinois State University, Ames, Illinois, holding membership in a student organization and a position of officer in an organized activity sponsored with the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and other or other name programs in Urbana-Champaign. The applicant allowed to receive credit for 18 semester hours earned and applicable with credit and no additional processing. The applicant was a member of the Illinois State University International Students and Scholars Office (ISISO) at the College of Arts and Sciences. To qualify for credit, the applicant must have completed the required credit and completed all necessary academic obligations and testing, including the applicant's written agreement of intent to attend at Illinois.

Applicant: The applicant will have completed all academic obligations and be eligible to receive credit for 18 semester hours and a degree program. The applicant must have completed college in an approved program and have completed all necessary academic obligations, including the applicant's written agreement of intent to attend at Illinois. The applicant must have completed all necessary academic obligations, including the applicant's written agreement of intent to attend at Illinois. The applicant must have completed all necessary academic obligations, including the applicant's written agreement of intent to attend at Illinois. The applicant must have completed all necessary academic obligations, including the applicant's written agreement of intent to attend at Illinois.

These credits are given in fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Master of Arts in English Language, beginning in September 2014. The applicant must have completed all necessary academic obligations, including the applicant's written agreement of intent to attend at Illinois.

Dr. Linda K. Miller
Associate Professor
Department of English Language
College of Arts and Sciences
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Linda K. Miller
Associate Professor
Department of English Language
College of Arts and Sciences
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

U of I www.uiuc.edu